

iEMPATHIZE^{•ORG}

Now What...

- On October 25th at DCC at 1pm we will be hosting a Training / Workshop on local human trafficking issues and how you can be an advocate in your community. Local abolitionist and trafficking expert, Phil Gazley will be facilitating. This workshop will be essential for those who want to be actively engaged in fighting trafficking in Denver.
- DCC will be facilitating a Global Slavery and Trafficking discussion group. The group will begin meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 20th at DCC at 7pm. For more information contact: abolition@denverchurch.org
- DCC will be hosting a screening of the new Invisible Children documentary this Sunday at 8pm following the evening service. Check out www.invisiblechildren.com for more information on the film
- David Batstone of Not For Sale will be speaking at the Temple Event Center (16th and Pearl) on October 21st at 7pm. This event is free to all.
- Take a justice personality profile and discover your strongest personality type and how you can engage most effectively according to your personality. <http://www.iempathize.org/quiz.html>

For more information on engaging with human trafficking at DCC

email us at: abolition@denverchurch.org