Title: You Can Do This

Scripture: Luke 9:10-17

Introduction to Analog

The word, Analog, means “something that is similar or comparable to something else”. Analog is designed to be a tangible way to take another, deeper, look into each week’s Sunday morning message. Individuals, friends, small groups, and families can use Analog for further discussion and exploration of the Sunday teaching. May this tool help you explore the expansive heart of God and practice love in the ways of Jesus.

Teaching Season

There are several stories that cause one to wonder exactly who Jesus is. While we may be quick to offer an answer, Luke does no such thing. Rather he tells several stories of parables, interactions and miracles all leading up to Jesus asking the question himself: “Who do you say I am?” And we are invited to respond.

Teaching

We will explore this story in its full context and allusions to other miraculous stories as we learn to see what we have is enough when we put what we have into the hands of Jesus.

Opening Question for the Group: Start your group discussion with the question below.

- 1) What’s your favorite grocery item splurge to purchase and why?

Questions for Discussion or Reflection

Here are some questions for discussion or reflection. Don’t feel like you have to cover them all, and you may have questions of your own to ask. The Spiritual Practice for this week could be very meaningful for you or your group, so plan on 10 minutes or so for this exercise. If you are using this in a group context, read through these questions and the Spiritual Practice before your group meets to familiarize yourself with this material. You may want to send this out to the group before you meet.

1. Why do so many feel like they don’t have enough?
2. Interact with this statement: “The central message of our culture is: more!”
3. Do you believe that God needs us to do God’s work in the world?
4. What do you believe you can do or give to bring solutions to our world?
